A correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung describes an extraordinary scene in one of the most frequented cafes of Paris. A number of Germans who had been drinking until they were lively, began to shout: "A bas les Juifs." ("down with the Jews!") Everybody in the place turned and looked at them and the cry was raised: "Ah! viola des barbares Allemands," ("They are German barbarians!") and was caught up and repeated on all sides. Others shouted: "We know no difference between Christians and Jews. We are Frenchmen!" Great uproar followed, and it was some time before quiet was restored. Presently the Germans again raised the cry: "Down with the Jews!" Upon this the Frenchmen no longer confined themselves to words, but setting upon the Germans drove them out of the place.

Mr. Maurice Le Breton, a brother of Mrs. Langtry, has just been killed in India in circumstances as painful as those of the death of Lord Edward St. Maur some years ago. He was shockingly worried by a tiger, which is understood to have dragged him out of a tree, and, although he survived a week, there never was any hope of his recovery. He was well known in India as "a mighty hunter," was a young man of great promise, and had only lately been decorated with the C. I. E. for his services in Afghanistan.

A cable despatch announces the death on Sunday, in the seventy-seventh year of his age, of the Hon. Peter Campbell Scarlett, a son of the first Lord Abinger, better known as the distinguished lawyer Sir James Scarlett, who filled the office recently abolished of Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer.

[Per steamer Geo. E. Starr.]

There was a big storm at Mississippi City, Miss. Brother Haskell's camp meeting tabernacle was crowded. While the lightning was flashing and the thunder pealing the evangelist cried out, "Keep your seats and you are safe! Go out and you are struck dead! God is in the boom; the tent is waterproof." Fifteen minutes after the congregation left a lamp exploded, burning severely watchman Wilson and scorching the grand organ.

A Philadelphia man has discovered that the sun never sets on American soil, and that before it ceases shining on the flag on the Aleutian Islands, off Alaska, it kisses the broad stripes and bright stars at Calais, Maine.

ANOTHER SHIPMENT OF THE GENUINE SINGER.

PRICE, $35, NOT $65

The public require no caution from a used up opposition agent. These machines are rapidly finding a place in families as the best Singer machines (and they are THE best) ever imported into the Province. Their two extensive Factories, considered to be the largest and most complete in the world, enable the manufacturers to place those machines before the public upon their merits as the most perfect of all Singers and at a reasonable price. Send your orders direct to headquarters. Price, $35 with attachments.

N. B.—No other Singer gives as long a guarantee. T. W. FLETCHER, Fort st.

To arrive in a few days a large shipment of the world-renowned Wanzers.

Hear! Hear! Hear!

The Fort Street Machine man again advertises that he has received a shipment of Genuine Singers. Why, the idiotic fellow has not and never did have a Genuine Singer in his shop, for they are only sold by responsible parties. Selling bogus Singers, thereby deluding the public, doctoring machines with emery powder, cutting and scraping others, is more clearly his occupation than dealing with the original and genuine Singer, whose agents are responsible men wholly unused to such tricks. The man's last trick of a short time ago was cutting and disfiguring two of the genuine Singers on their way to Nanaimo for which the captain of the boat was going to give him a flying leap overboard. The man's conscience smote him and he delivered a short prayer for forgiveness of his past sins and tricks and prayed for mercy when the captain suspended the rod of justice. What machine does he want now? A new one by the next full moon when his idiotic spells take him? Himself and his machines are played out in Victoria and elsewhere and he is now trying to pass inferior secondhand articles on the public of Victoria and vicinity; but it won't do, for he is too well known. Don't let him dupe you. As he tried to do with the Chinaman tailor in Nanaimo by ruining two of his Raymond machines in order to foist one of his inferior counterfeits upon him; but did not succeed.

You can only get the GENUINE NEW YORK SINGER SEWING MACHINE from W. H. ADAMS, the only authorized agent for British Columbia. 1m* Haunted by His Crime.

The following striking example of the state of a murderer's heart, with its ceaseless memory and perpetual self-accusation, brings forcibly to mind the words of Webster: "A vulture is devouring it, and it can ask no human assistance or sympathy." The case is that of Martin Battles, of Charlotte, N. Y., who twenty years ago shot and killed Cornelius Lynch.

He was tried and convicted of murder in the first degree, and sentenced to one year in the Auburn penitentiary, and then to be hanged. His case was brought before the Court of Appeals. The court decided that the act of the Legislature was unconstitutional, and Battles was set at liberty. He enlisted in the Union army, and served through the late war. He then returned. He declared that he was constantly haunted by the presence of the man he had killed, and he was sorry that the sentence of the law had not been carried out. He endeavored to have himself placed on trial again, hoping that he would be reconvicted and hanged. He finally became a maniac, and was placed in the Western asylum for the insane. He is still an inmate of that institution, and imagines that his victim is always present in his cell for the purpose of mocking and torturing him. He at times throws himself on his knees and begs Lynch to kill him. Although only 40 years of age, his hair is as white as a man's of 70. Every day is one of terror to him. —New York Sun.

Taking Things for Granted.

Half the failures in life result from the habit so many people have of taking things for granted. The business man assumes that his credits are good; he takes it for granted that his wife knows what style of living his income will warrant; until the logic of addition, subtraction and multiplication proves too much for him, and down comes his business in ruin. The young professional man takes it for granted that veneering instead of solid acquirements will enable him to succeed, because there are so many notorious examples of men's rising and maintaining themselves in public life through pure audacity, native wit, and an utter lack of conscience. He will find too late that it won't do to plan and risk a career by the exceptions rather than the rule. The farmer keeps no account—crops his farm according to the season, or last year's markets, or his neighbor's success—takes it for granted that the laws of nature and of trade will accommodate themselves to his necessities—sinks deeper into debt, and wonders why farming doesn't pay. And so on to the end; men everywhere want success without paying its price in thorough preparation, honest hard work, intelligent calculation and foresight, patient attention to details. They take for granted things which it is their business to know, and trust that to fortune which common sense and experience should teach them is controlled by law. Golden Rule.

Ireland's Great Land-Owners.

The following figures in regard to the ownership of Irish land are interesting: One man owns 170,000 acres; three men own 100,000 acres each; fourteen men, 50,000 acres each; ninety men, 20,000 acres each; and 452 men, 5,000 acres each. The Association of Salters own 19,000 acres; the Drapers, 27,000 acres; the Merchants, 21,000 acres; the Skinners, 24,000 acres; the Fishmongers, 20,000 acres; the Ironmongers, 10,000, and the Grocers, 10,000 acres. It is not, therefore, any exaggeration to say that, of the £21,000,000 which is annual Irish rental, at least £12,000,000 is spent out of the country; and where, as in the case of Ireland, the country is not wealthy, and has no other industry except agriculture, this state of things, until remedied, will be productive of want and misery.—London Truth.

The Game of Geography.

An ingenious Frenchman has invented a game for facilitating the study of geography by children. This new game, approved by the Paris Society of Geography, consists of a large planisphere map of the globe, accompanied by numerous objects representing animals, plants, flags, costumes, towns and landscapes. These objects of painted cardboards stand upright when the small inscription accompanying them is folded back; they carry, moreover, a number corresponding to one on the map. Placing each in its proper position, the child becomes acquainted with the subject; if it be a plant, he knows the place which produces it and its use; if a town, he knows its population, its position, etc. The map is folded, and, with its various objects, put into a box.

Daily Colonist.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUG. 10TH, 1881.

MR. W. HARRISON
Is the only person at Yale who is authorized to receive Subscriptions for the DAILY and WEEKLY COLONIST.

L. P. FISHER, Advertising Agent, 21 Merchants Exchange, San Francisco, is authorised to receive advertisements for the columns of this paper.

FROZEN SALMON FOR ENGLAND.

Frozen meats are now successfully sent from Canada, the United States and Australia to England in vast refrigerating chambers with which the steamers are fitted. The voyage from Australia consumes 100 days and for some distance the route lies through the tropics. Frozen trout and salmon are every season sent to England from Canada and realize enormous sums. But the number is limited and the first cost of the fish so high that only the very wealthy can afford to place them upon their tables. Here, where salmon now sell at three cents apiece, a steamer provided with the proper refrigerators might be loaded with sockeyes and sent to England as easily and as profitably as frozen meats are shipped thither from Australia, or frozen fish from Canada. A good steamer should make the run in 75 or 80 days, the fish would arrive in prime condition, would command at least 30 cents per lb. in the London market and would be considered cheap at that figure.

THE SURVEY COMMISSIONERS.

The report of the special meeting of the Municipal Council occupies considerable space in these columns; but not more than the importance of the subject merits. Messrs. Pemberton and Pearse, in their capacity as city survey commissioners, had been charged with over-riding an Act of parliament and with other assumption of authority to which it is not now necessary to refer. At the meeting yesterday the commissioners were asked to explain. They did so. The explanation completely upset the charge of disregarding the statute, the commissioners showing that the Act was not passed until ten months after they had begun their work under instructions from the City Council. This charge having been disposed of, all the other charges tumbled to the ground, and the Council unanimously voted the commissioners emolument for their services. "All's well that ends well."

THE EXAMINERS' REPORT.

The public are still awaiting an explanation of the circumstances that led to the appearance of the official report of the school teachers' examiners in the government organ, and a materially different one from the same gentlemen in the government Gazette. If the immaculate triumvirate made a blunder at first why do they hesitate to acknowledge the error. Their silence gives rise to disagreeable rumors. An explanation is certainly due the public from these well paid officials. We await an explanation before giving currency to a communication we have in hand upon the subject.

Accident to the Daughters of the Prince of Wales.

A few evenings ago at a quarter before six, an accident occurred to a carriage occupied by the Princess Louise, Victoria and Maud of Wales, when returning from Hyde Park. On passing through the triumphal arch, one of the pair of horses attached to the barouche became restive. A footman at once alighted to quiet the animal, but before he could do so both horses rushed down Constitutional hill into the Mall, in the direction of the Horse Guards. A brougham crossing their path, they were turned through Marlborough yard into Pall mall, where the carriage came into collision with a lamp post in the centre of the roadway. A policeman caught the horses by the head and brought them to a standstill, and the Princesses, who were naturally much alarmed, and their governess, Mdlle. Vautier, were able to alight. They were conducted by Sir Dighton Probyn, who was at hand, to the Thatched House Club, in St. James street, where they remained for a few minutes before returning to Marlborough House. Fortunately they sustained no injury, although one wheel of the vehicle was carried away, and the body considerably damaged. The Prince and Princess of Wales were at an afternoon party given by Sir Frederick Leighton, P. R. A., at his house in Holland Park road, at the time of the occurrence, and on hearing of it, immediately returned home. A telegram was despatched to the Queen at Windsor, informing Her Majesty of the occurrence. The Crown Prince and Princess of Germany were at Marlborough House when the young Princesses returned.

DELAYED DISPATCHES.

EUROPE.

London, Aug 6.—In the house of Lords an amendment offered by Earl Donoughmore, conservative, to clause five, limiting the compensation for disturbance to £250, opposed by the government, was carried, 180 to 9. The Duke of Argyle voted with the minority.

Lord Salisbury's amendment to clause seven, that the words "the court" should have reference to the interest of tenant and land-holder respectively, be stricken out; carried, 184 to 94.

Lord Lansdowne's amendment to clause to strike out the words "prohibiting the court from entertaining a proposal for resumption of any part of the holding for any purpose other than for providing for laborers' cottages and wardens during the statutory term." Carried, 195 to 77.

Lord Inchiquin's amendment excluding tenancies of 100 pounds and upwards from the operation of the bill was withdrawn on Lord Landsdowne stating he favored it, but that in view of Gladstone's statement in regard to it in the house of commons he would not take the responsibility of supporting it in order not to afford an excuse for future agitation. Salisbury also said he hoped the amendment would not be pressed.

In the house of commons last night, on going into committee of supply, Parnell brought under review the suspension of O'Kelly, home ruler, some weeks ago, for characterizing the statement of Tottenham, conservative, as lying and calumnious. Parnell argued that the standing order under which O'Kelly had been suspended was intended only to check persistent obstruction, and not to punish the hasty use of language: and he blamed the speaker for not giving him an opportunity of withdrawing the language he used on the first instant, when he was suspended by vote of the house for persisting, in spite of the speaker's ruling, in reading the question of the Irish political prisoners. Gladstone commented warmly on the liberty assumed by Parnell of appealing to the rules of the house one night and insulting them the next night, and severely censured him for introducing the subject at a time when it was impossible for the house to pronounce judgment, considering that O'Kelly had used the words immediately after O'Connor had been called to order for using the word "mendacious." He thought the charge against the speaker had completely failed.

New York, Aug. 7.—The World's London special says: A new company will shortly be formed with a capital of four million pounds sterling for reclaiming waste land in Ireland, amounting to about one-fifth of the superficial area of the country. Subscriptions will be asked for chiefly in England, but it is very doubtful whether the answer will be favorable. The government is said to be favorable to the extinction by state purchase of the titles of the English companies holding land in Ireland at the time of the foundation of the Ulster plantations under the Stuarts.

Vanity Fair denies the report that the infant son of the duke of Norfolk is blind.

London, Aug. 6.—A meeting was held here yesterday to further a scheme for holding an international fisheries' exhibition in London in 1883. The marquis of Exeter presided.

London, Aug. 6.—The world's convention of Y. M. C. A., has been a great success. Forty thousand dollars is pledged to inaugurate in Great Britain a work like that in America.

The number of agrarian outrages committed in Ireland during July was 239, including four firings at persons, seven assaults, 20 arsons, 17 cattle maiming, 155 intimidations, and 25 cases of injury to property.

Dublin, Aug. 6.—Farmers agreed to pay the striking laborers at Youghal yesterday two shillings per day during harvest time, with board, half an acre of land and house rent free. The agreement was received with satisfaction.

London, Aug 7.—Much uneasiness is felt throughout England concerning the well known fact that infernal machines have been successfully smuggled through several ports and are probably now in the hands of men who know how to use them. Sir Wm. Harcourt is kept continually on the alert. He realizes the danger.

Since the death of Mr. Mechi, the razor strap man, Mr. Clair Sewell Read has been recognized as the highest agricultural authority in England. Mr. Read says that while the wheat throughout England looks well the heads are poor and that the crop will be below the average. Roots of all kinds promise well, but grain is poor.

The number of English visitors to the United States this autumn will be very large. The Duke of Argyle is reported to be going next month. The Earl of Airlie will visit you accompanied by his son the genial Lord Ogilvy. The Duke of Sutherland will return as soon as his engagements will permit. The Earl of Dunraven starts next week if the land bill is out of the way by that time, and hundreds of less known persons are bound for the grand Atlantic tour.

London, Aug. 7.—At a dinner to ministers nearly all were present. Among the guests were Sir Garnet Wolesley and Sir John A. Macdonald, Canadian premier. Gladstone, in an address to ministers, dwelt upon the painful scenes which sometimes dishonored and disabled the noblest legislative assembly in the world. This state of affairs, he said, renders necessary measures for improving the condition of this great legislature. After deploring the necessity for a coercion bill he expressed the hope, though he might be premature in saying so, that at least one of the great measures will be placed on the statute books. The matter, he said, is still uncertain, and depends upon other hands.

Referring to foreign politics Gladstone said, is spite of miscarriages, we believe we are traveling on a way towards general peace. The Afghan strife is a painful lesson, confirming the conviction that it was an error to break that united and independent kingdom. We trust our course will henceforward only leave in the Afghan mind the impressions of our desire for their welfare. Gladstone praised the loyalty of the Boers. He said there was no reason why Transvaal, under the shadow of British protection, should not grow up in the enjoyment of the same advantages as other colonies. Gladstone eulogized the action of Sir Geo. J. Goschen in the Greek negotiations, and concluded his remarks with a reference to British colonies, saying there was no statesman worthy of the name but would almost as soon think of renouncing his great duties to England as towards those portions of the British Empire.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 6.—The Imperial family and court arrived yesterday at Peterhof palace.

Vienna, Aug. 6.—The porte will deliver a note immediately to powers endeavoring to remove all ground or cause of misunderstanding with France in regard to Tripoli. The dispatch of Turkish troops to Tripoli is defended on the ground of necessity in securing safety to Tripolitans.

INDIA.

The viceroy of India telegraphs that a native messenger who has returned from Candahar reports that Ayoob Khan is making preparations for an advance on Cabul.

CALIFORNIA.

Livermore, Aug. 7.—John Taylor, a resident of this county for thirty years, was brutally murdered at his ranch to day by his son-in-law, John Poblitz. Poblitz had been so cruel to his wife that she was compelled to go to her father's house for protection. Poblitz went to the house and beat Taylor to death with the leg of a table. The murderer has been arrested and is now in gaol.

EASTERN STATES.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—It has just been discovered that ever since Monday morning a mysterious conclave of prominent Irishmen, numbering something like a hundred, has been in session in this city. Their deliberations have been held under lock and key, and in a room padded and otherwise secluded. There are present John Warren of Lowell, Mass., a strong friend of Ben. Butler; Thos. C. Quinn, a co-laborer of Crowe; Geo. J. West, of Providence, a lawyer and secretary of one branch of the land league; Rev. Father John C. Bates, of St. Louis; Geo. C. Cunningham of New Haven, and many other well-known agitators. Nobody has been let into their secrets and their meetings have excluded all reporters. It has, however, leaked out that these men are the dynamite crowd; that their deliberations are not as to whether dynomite shall be used against England but as to the most feasible way of using it. The discussion seemed to take it for granted that there were Irish patriots as much devoted to their ideas as are the nihilist band; that there would be no difficulty in finding Irishmen who would adopt the possibility or even a certainty of death if by it they might do great and serious damage to England. The plans were elaborate, it is said, by which dynamite was to be furnished and used on the vessels and in cities. They considered the question of how to get better manufacturers of infernal machines in the United States and France. Their financial condition was reported as being sound and the treasury contains nearly one hundred thousand dollars for a skirmishing fund, and committees have been appointed to provide for the future and levy a tax to raise more. A delegation of city priests waited on the members of this conclave to-day and begged them with solemn abjurgations and impressive arguments to desist from their plots and adjourn at once. They refused to listen to such arguments and advice, saying that they came here for business and were determined to accomplish their purpose. The meeting will probably terminate to-morrow.

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 5.—P. W. Crowe, of infernal machine notoriety, is about to enter the lecture field. His subject will be, "What I know about infernal machines." He still insists that the machines sent to Liverpool were manufactured here.

Petersburg, Pa., Aug. 5.—The refusal of John W. Green to drink with Wm. Lee, caused a fight in which Green's throat was cut and Lee shot. Both died.

New York, Aug. 8.—Monsigneur Steton, of St. Joseph's Church, Jersey city, holds a picnic on August 15th, at which beer will be sold. Father Hennessy, pastor of the adjoining parish, takes exception to this conduct on the part of Monsigneur, saying the picnic should not be held on a holy day of the Assumption of the blessed Virgin Mary, and that as a priest he had to be responsible for the salr of beer. Monsigneur says the Catholic Church in America is to be conducted according to American principles and not on European principles. Father Hennessy, he says, is ignorant of the American idea and method and thinks he must govern his parish here as he would in Ireland, and that all he has to do is to bring his Irish shillalelah and cry to his parishioners "prohibition" and they must submit like slaves. He would treat them like dogs, but this cannot be done in America, and I say emphatically it shall not be done here in the Catholic Church as far as my influence can go. I am an American first of all, of old family. I have travelled in Europe and lived there, and nowhere have I seen the right hand of fellowship extended so freely as I have in America. I have been insulted even in Italy and Spain, but never in America. I am passionately devoted to American institutions.

The Sun says Rev. Dr. Stephen H. Tyng, Jr., and Rev. John A. Bachi, his assistant in the church of the Holy Trinity, went from the ministry into the life insurance business. Tyng is now resident director in Paris of the Equitable, and Bachi is general agent of the same company, having an office at 83 Liberty street. Tyng and Bachi have also formed a partnership of their own under the title of John A. Bachi & Co.

Charleston, Aug. 7.—A letter to the News and Courier from the western part of Darlington county, S. C., gives an account of a terrible and extraordinary casualty from lightning on Thursday afternoon. A group of 20 men, all white, road hands, were standing close to the house of J. W. Clayburn, near Hartsville, when a stroke of lightning killed four and wounded ten of the number. Five of the wounded were desperately hurt, and may die. There was no storm at the time, though a heavy rain fell shortly afterward.

Washington, Aug. 8.—The president's condition is not as favorable to-night as desired and apprehensions are again expressed as to his recovery. Surgeons in consultation and official bulletins allay apprehensions all they can, but they don't deny there is more danger to-night for the patient than for the past two nights. There is fear another operation will have to be performed.

Morristown, N. Y., Aug. 6.—Orville Grant, brother of General Grant, died at Morris Plains yesterday.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—The people of Fenimore, Wis., are terribly excited over a genuine case of Asiatic cholera, which resulted fatally in that village Saturday. Alvarn Palmer, a resident, was the victim.

MEXICO.

Guaymas, Aug. 8.—A few American desperadoes who were here some time ago left for Alamosa probably to rob a bullion train. It has been ascertained that one of the party, a genteel looking fellow of 19, was shot and killed by his partner during a quarrel. Names unknown.

A carriage containing $50,000 was stopped on the Altar road and the money taken.

CANADA.

Prescott, Ont., Aug. 6.—Twelve tramps boarded a freight train, and despite conductors and hands rode from Brockville to this place. They ransacked freight in the storehouse, resenting interference, but the arrival of more trains with assistance resulted in their being badly beaten and driven to the woods.

Persons suffering from impure blood, or whose health is giving way, either as ministers or those who study closely, will find in Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites the material to build them up and the tone to keep them there. *

Ayer's Ague Cure should be in every household in regions where Fever and Ague prevail. It should be taken as a preventive by every resident and traveller in malarial districts. *

Death of Mrs. Ash--Dangerous Condition of Dr. Ash.

By yesterday's mail the melancholy intelligence was received that Mrs. Ash died on the 13th ult. at Great Malvern, Worcestershire, England. It appears that both the doctor and Mrs. Ash contracted malarial fever while they were detained at Council Bluffs, Missouri, by the floods in the Missouri River when en route from this city to England in April last. This seems to have lurked in their systems till they reached London where the doctor was taken down with it. He partially recovered, suffered a relapse and rallied again and had gone to Great Malvern where there are some celebrated medicinal waters, when Mrs. Ash took sick. She suffered for three weeks when some favorable symptoms intervened, but afterwards getting worse she died, as before stated, on the 13th July. Doctor Ash was very low at last advices and was suffering from an attack of jaundice, but expressed the hope that he would pull through and be able to leave for home early next month. The intelligence of this amiable and much respected lady's death will be a severe shock to her large circle of acquaintances in this city.

NEW WESTMINSTER DISPATCH.

The Mysterious Murder--The Sharpshooters, Etc.

[Special Dispatch to The Colonist.]

NEW WESTMINSTER, Aug. 9.

The adjourned inquest on the body referred to in yesterday's dispatch was held this morning and the body fully identified as that of John Calder. A letter from his sister-in-law residing in Washington Territory was found a short distance from the body. No clue has been obtained as to the perpetrators of the deed, but no doubt exists as to the fact of deceased having been brutally murdered. Calder had been flush of money lately which is sufficient reason for the crime.

Victoria sharpshooters arrived this evening and expect to give a good account of themselves. Nanaimo's contingent in charge of Capt. Harvey arrived on the steamer Ada.

In passing through Plumper Pass today the steamer Barnard Castle, steaming slightly ahead of the Enterprise, ran on the rocks, but got off without assistance and went on her way to Nanaimo.

Heavy rain since 4 a.m. and still continues.

The Wilson G. Hunt arrived from Victoria at 4.15 p. m.

Barnard Castle met with a slight accident coming through Plumper Pass. The tide being very strong it took her on the rocks. She has gone on the beach at Departure Bay. The particulars regarding the damage done will be forwarded to-morrow.

Murder of an Indian Woman at Howe Sound.

[Special to The Colonist.]

GRANVILLE, Aug. 9.

On Saturday morning last an Indian and a woman (his mother) left the Quamish and camped at Howe Sound near Point Atkinson light-house. Some time in the night the man was disturbed by the report of a gun close at hand and jumping up he saw a man. Being frightened he made for the woods in the direction of Moodyville, where he arrived on Monday. A canoe was dispatched to the camp by the woman's friends where her body was found shot through the heart, the ball entering near the shoulder-blade. No track of the murderer. An inquest will be held on the body this evening.

COUNT LOUIS DE PLAINVAL, a member of an ancient and noble French family, is attached to the Lester Opera Co., which will open here on the 18th inst.

Municipal City Council.

TUESDAY, Aug. 9.

Council met at 11½ a. m. Present: His Worship the Mayor in the chair and Couns. Shakespeare, Smith, Boyd, McLean, Kinsman, Wriglesworth and Vigelius.

The Survey Commissioners — Messrs. Pemberton and Pearse—were in attendance.

THE CITY SURVEY.

The Mayor said the object of the meeting was to consider the position of the Council with the survey commissioners.

Coun. McLean rose to privilege. He produced a memorandum introduced into the Council in June last, which conveyed the strongest possible charges against the commissioners. He believed the document to be irregular and unconstitutional, and proceeded to review the circumstances that led to the introduction of the libellous memorandum. The Council had directed Mr. Shakespeare to sign a cheque in favor of the commissioners for $250 and he had declined to do so.

Coun. Shakespeare—The cheque was never presented—how could I refuse to sign it?

Coun. McLean—The names of the mover and seconder of this memorandum should have been attached to the document. There was never a vote taken upon it. It was never acted upon by the Council, it is seriously libellous and illegal and cannot be acted upon by this Board.

Coun. Smith—Is that the original document?

Coun. McLean.—No, it is not. There are erasures that are uninitialed and this paper never passed the Council, yet it appeared in the paper.

In reply to Coun. Boyd the clerk read from the minutes certain actions taken by the Board with respect to the matter, and said that there was no vote taken upon the memorandum.

The Mayor—Then this is informal.

Coun. Boyd—A drowning man will catch at a straw.

Coun. Shakespeare said that the obstacle was characteristic of the man who raised it (Coun. McLean). The Council should try and get at the truth of the matter without raising such an issue as this. Why should the document be thrown out on legal grounds? He wanted to get at the truth. He was not here to condemn the commissioners. He had no personal feeling against them and was only doing his duty to the people; but all were liable to make mistakes. The commissioners had asked to have the inaccuracies pointed out and the Council had tried to point them out. He believed the work was incomplete and he had a right to that belief. These small technicalities were probably intended to cover up something wrong that had been done. What a flimsy excuse this was to try and throw out the document.

The Mayor said the memorandum had never been voted upon; but if the right copy was sent in that was all that was wanted.

Coun. Vigelius said that he had moved a resolution at a previous meeting to postpone action till the return of the Mayor. To him the answers of the commissioners were most satisfactory.

Coun. Smith said he had moved to relieve the commissioners from further duty and Coun. Shakespeare moved the memorandum, action upon which was deferred. He wished the matter to be thoroughly ventilated. He believed the commissioners had discharged their duty and the Council had failed in theirs in not providing the necessary funds. Much of the responsibility rested upon the late city barrister; but he did not object to the memorandum coming up.

Coun. Shakespeare said that the amendment which had been moved and discussed, was the property of the Council and could not be thrown out in this way.

Coun. Boyd said that the amendment had been discussed and was therefore in order.

Coun. McLean said the charges against the commissioners were of the gravest character and could be disproved. What he wanted was for Coun. Shakespeare and Coun. Boyd to sign this document, then he would discuss it. He repelled a charge of using personalities; and demanded that names should be attached to the memorandum.

Coun. Shakespeare as mover and Coun. Boyd as seconder then signed the paper.

The Mayor—It is moved by Coun. Shakespeare and seconded by Coun. McLean that this memorandum be taken up.

The motion was carried and the survey commissioners were asked for a statement.

Mr. Pemberton said he and his colleague first read the memorandum in The Colonist, and felt hurt because many who read the memorandum might never see the refutation and would always think the commissioners had bungled their work. He claimed that the work had been done well, and that instead of the Council declaring the city map not worth the paper it was drawn on, they ought to be proud of it, as it correctly defined the lines and boundaries. The commissioners had met the survey committee and that committee had arrived at the conclusion that the survey commissioners had done their work well. Mahood & Cridge were expected to finish their work by the 1st December, 1879. Mahood was a good surveyor, but Cridge had not sufficient experience to do the work alone. The first half of the survey was well done; but after that the commissioners could get no satisfaction from the surveyors. Mahood finally dropped out of the work and if the services of another engineer (Mr. Harris) had not been obtained the work would never have been completed. He asked the Council to inspect the maps and point out wherein they were inaccurate. The commissioners had done their best and they and the city had cause to be proud of the work. He expressed his indignation at the appearance of the memorandum in The Colonist, and said that the proposed emolument was a secondary consideration with the commissioners. They looked upon the work as a public duty; contended that the map was of great value and attributed the breakdown of Mahood & Cridge to the insufficiency of their compensation.

Mr. Pearse endorsed all that his colleague had said. He (Mr. Pearse) had intended at first to assume the duties without pay, but having, meanwhile, resigned his federal position, he took the work more as a public duty. The memorandum was highly libellous, and its appearance in The Colonist was most injurious, and had names been attached to it there might have been a very serious consequence for its authors to face.

The Mayor—How was this published?

The clerk said he had not given a copy of it to The Colonist.

Coun. McLean—Your worship should find out how it got into the paper.

Coun. Shakespeare and Coun. Boyd—It was part of the proceedings of the Council.

Mr. Pearse then reviewed the memorandum seriatim, replying to each charge and denying its correctness. The commissioners, he said, had asked where the plans were inaccurate and had received no reply; the specifications for the survey were very faulty; the duties of the commissioners could not have been defined by the Act because it was passed ten months after their appointment; Mahood and Cridge had not fulfilled their agreement and had caused confusion; they did not even put down the boundary stones, and Mr. Harris afterwards placed them at the command of the Council; the commissioners had reported the negligence of Mahood and Cridge to the Council; Mr. Harris was not employed by the commissioners, but by the Mayor and Council; the public landing was placed on the map by order of the Council, the commissioners having only power to define the lines of streets; the commissioners had not misconstrued the Act, their duties having been defined ten months before the passage of the Act; the map as prepared by them formed an accurate plan of the city which could be defined at a slight expense; they had not encroached upon the lines of private lots except in a few cases. The memorandum was untrue, malicious and libellous. Mr. Pearse concluded as follows:

We have been enabled, besides obtaining the full width of the public landing at the foot of Yates street, to prevent a grievous injury to the property-owners in Government street in particular and to the citizens of Victoria in general, by preventing the attempt at encroachment made on the west side of the street by the Dominion Government. We have had an irksome task to perform. Until quite lately we have received every courtesy at the hands of this and of two previous Councils, and at all times from your Worship. We regret the treatment which we have recently received from a small minority of this Council because it will preclude our undertaking in the future any similar professional work. The remuneration promised to us for this work, owing to its magnitude and to the many outside issues which have arisen from it, amounts, judged by the daily fee, to about the ordinary wages of a day laborer."

Mr. Pearse then read the instructions of the commissioners as adopted by the Mayor and Council, and a long letter concerning the failure of M. & C. to complete the contract, quoting from a letter from Cridge assigning to the Council all the notes, plans, stones, etc., connected with the survey.

Coun. Smith—The Corporation placed themselves in the position of the survey contractors by accepting the assignment. The letters just read show that. The Commissioners have done their duty as far as they could and should receive the emolument due them. They would win in a court of law.

Coun. McLean said the explanation of the Commissioners was most satisfactory. They had discharged arduous duties most successfully. The whole trouble arose from the failure of Mahood & Cridge; confusion resulted therefrom, from which the city had been relieved by the intelligence and and hardwork of the Commission. The plan was a most creditable one and he hoped that the resolution of Coun. Smith would pass. The document that appeared in The Colonist was a malicious and disgraceful libel. It attacked the characters of the Commissioners and should never have been brought before this Council, much less have seen the light of day through The Colonist. He seconded the motion of Coun. Smith.

Coun. Vigelius thought that if there were any doubts to be cleared away now was the time. He was satisfied with the explanation of Messrs. Pearse and Pemberton.

Coun. Kinsman would be the last to cast any imputations upon the Commissioners and was satisfied with the explanation. It was most ample, and if anything he had said was considered offensive he now withdrew it.

Coun. Shakespeare said he had not come there to quarrel or to say a word against the Commissioners, for whom he entertained the liveliest respect. He was not a surveyor, did not pretend to be one, and all he relied upon in introducing the memoranda was the Act of the legislature and the evidence taken before a committee of the legislature. He had no doubt the Commissioners had labored under great difficulties, but they should have adhered to the Act of the legislature. The Council had no right to instruct the Commissioners in contravention of that Act.

The Mayor—But the Act was passed subsequent to the beginning of their work.

Coun. Shakespeare.—The specifications were drawn up by the Council for the guidance of the commissioners.

Coun. Smith.—They were drawn up for the contractors.

Mr. Pemberton—The act was not passed until ten months after the appointment of the commissioners and the commissioners acted under instructions from the Council.

Coun. Shakespeare.—But the act refers to Mahood & Cridge as contractors and to Pemberton and Pearse as commissioners. This was what made all the trouble.

Mr. Pearse.—This act was passed when it was assumed that the work would be done by the contractors. We are not responsible for their failures, and we worked ten months under instructions from the Council before the act was passed.

Coun. Shakespeare.—Could not a man who was aggrieved go to law under this act if its terms have not been adhered to?

Mr. Pemberton.—A short act of the legislature would cure that. The commissioners were not the servants of the parliament; they were the servants of the Council and had adhered to the latter's instructions. The survey committee were perfectly satisfied with the work of the commissioners and yet Mr. Shakespeare gave a vote of want of confidence in the commissioners.

Mr. Pearse said the commissioners had not interfered with private rights and that the preamble of the act assumed a thing which was known to be incorrect.

Mr. Pemberton.—The city barrister says the maps are valid.

Coun. Shakespeare only desired to get at the truth, and wished to know if the plans had been made in accordance with the field notes of M. & C.

Mr. Pearse.—As far as they go, yes. We laid down the lines of the public landing by command of the Council.

Coun. Shakespeare denounced councillors who dictated to professional men. He also denounced cliquism at the board, and said all the trouble had arisen from it.

Mr. Pemberton.—The Mayor and Council give us our orders. We discharged our duties and ten months afterwards an act of parliament was passed which Mr. Shakespeare now says we ought to have been guided by.

Coun. Shakespeare drew attention to the evidence of R. C. Cridge regarding the stones.

Mr. Pearse showed that the field notes were not completed by Mr. Cridge.

Coun. Smith said that Mr. Harris had to complete the plans that were abandoned by Mahood & Cridge. The act undertook to prescribe rules for work that had been undertaken ten months before.

Coun. Shakespeare said his remarks had been based upon the act, which was now worthless.

Mr. Pemberton.—You differ from the city barrister, who says it validates the map.

Mr. Shakespeare.—Then why not adhere to the act?

The Mayor.—It cannot affect work that was done months before.

Coun. Shakespeare.—If the act is valid the ground I have taken is good. If the act is invalid, my ground is bad.

Coun. Boyd explained his position as seconder of the amendment, and asked how Government street was so many feet wider at one end than the other? Are the lines the legal lines?

Mr. Pearse.—Yes.

Coun. Boyd.—Then why were the Dominion Government allowed to encroach on those lines?

Mr. Pearse.—They were going to take four feet, but they were stopped at ten inches.

Coun. Boyd.—Then what is to prevent them going the whole distance? Why did Coun. Smith, as a contractor, allow the Dominion Government to encroach upon the sidewalks?

Mr. Pearse.—We tried to stop them.

The Mayor.—We sent them a notice, but they persisted.

Coun. Boyd.—Why was not the public landing put on the map?

Mr. Pearse.—It was—it is there to be seen.

Coun. Boyd.—My action is grounded upon the evidence taken before the select committee of the House.

Coun. Boyd said he should have failed in his duty if he had acted otherwise as he understood the matter at the time he seconded the memorandum.

Coun. Smith.—Was the west line of Government street verified from the field notes of Mahood & Cridge?

Mr. Pearse.—I persume it was.

Coun. Smith.—That was why I could not reconcile my plans with the lines. The west side is laid out like a snake fence or a puzzle.

The amendment was withdrawn by Coun. Shakespeare and the resolution of Coun. Smith, declaring the work accepted, was carried unanimously.

Coun. Smith then moved that the commissioners be paid $500 each for their services. Carried.

PUBLIC LANDING BYLAW.

This bylaw came up for first reading, the election having been declared illegal.

Coun. Shakespeare said he would move an addition to the effect that Mr. Yates would bind himself to erect on lot 20, within one year, a building the cost of which would not be less than $5000.

Coun. McLean said that he did not think there would be any objection.

Further consideration was laid over till Wednesday evening.

Fire Delegates Meeting.

The monthly meeting of the Board of Delegates was held last evening in the Tiger engine house, all the members except one being present.

An application was made by the Hook & Ladder Co. for certain necessary repairs on the Hook & Ladder house. The application was granted and the supply committee instructed to call for tenders for the work.

A communication was read from Messrs. Drake & Jackson asking, on behalf of Mr. Henry Stewart, whether some 30 new members of the Hook & Ladder Co. were entitled to vote at the next election for chief and assistant engineers.

The secretary was instructed to state in reply that these members not having received their certificates of membership till the 12th of April, were not entitled to vote on the 1st Monday in October as they will not then have been members for the six months required by the regulations. After the regular routine business of the month had been disposed of the meeting adjourned.

THURSDAY, Aug. 9.

An application was made by Mr. M. W. T. Drake for leave to appeal against the decision of the Magistrates Court at Esquimalt imposing a fine of $150 on Stephen Jones for selling liquor without a license on the plea that the Court hand no jurisdiction in the case. The application was granted it being unopposed.

THE BIG SAFE IN POSITION.—The 5000-lb. fire proof safe which recently arrived from the establishment of Messrs. J. & J. Taylor, Toronto, for the offices of the Dominion agent in this city was put in position yesterday over the stairway of the Occidental building, corner of Government and Fort streets. Several of these safes have been introduced into this province by the agents, M. W. Waitt & Co., but this is more than twice the weight of any of the others.

"ESSENCE OF A THOUSAND" STENCHES. Among the many foul smells that insult the olfactories of the passers by, none is more offensive than that which emanates from the drain on Fort street opposite the Driard Alley. Something should certainly be done by the sanitary committee to remove such a detestable effluvium from so public a thoroughfare.

SUMMONS.—A summons was issued yesterday for an assault which took place on board the steamer Enterprise on Monday night. The case will be heard to-morrow in the Police Court.

THE man who picked up the traces and breast-strap on Sunday evening is known and should return the articles to Bowman's stables to escape exposure.

THE CENSUS.—Mr. McKay sailed for the Northwest coast on the Los Angelos to take the census of the Indian tribes and to gather other statistics.

FROM THE NORTHERN FISHERIES

Encouraging Reports from Takou.

The steamer Grappler, Capt. Meyer, arrived yesterday afternoon from Wrangel which place she left on the 1st inst. calling at all the way ports on the passage down.

A party of ten men had reached Wrangel from Takou with the report that good paying quartz was to be found in great abundance, of that there was no doubt; but that it required capital to work it. So far little or nothing has been done in developing the vast riches of that far-off Eldorado.

The U. S. survey steamer Hassler was at anchor at Bella Bella when the Grappler called. She had been to Knight and Bute Inlets and was intending to leave for Alaska on the 7th inst.

Canneries on the Skeena have shut down for the season after a most excellent and successful catch of salmon. Their cases are all filled and more might have been put up had greater preparation been made.

The Naas river fishery is still busy canning salmon, but they would close shortly. The catch would continue longer at Alert Bay.

Steamer Otter was passed on the 7th at 11 p. m. in Johnson Strait off Adams Creek.

There had been no arrivals at Wrangel from Cassiar since last dates, consequently no news from that locality.

Three thousand cases and 425 barrels salmon came down by this arrival; also 45 pkgs furs.

Passenger list, which is large, and the consignees list will be found under their proper heading.

Funeral of the Late B. P. Griffin.

The remains of this generous-hearted, highly-cultivated and much respected Victoria pioneer were yesterday escorted to the "house appointed for all living" by a large number of sorrowing friends and acquaintances. A mournful cortege of about 20 carriages, with a large number of people on foot, accompanied the hearse from the deceased's late residence to the Reformed Episcopal church, where a portion of the burial service of the Church of England was impressively read by Bishop Cridge. The handsome and richly mounted coffin was almost enveloped in wreaths of immortelles and sweetly-scented flowers which filled the sacred edifice with their perfume. On the coffin being again deposited in the hearse by the pall-bearers—Mayor Turner, Doctors Matthews and Trimble and Messrs Keast, Alex. Phillips, Homfray, Farwell and Rome—the funeral cavalcade moved slowly on to Ross Bay cemetery. Here the last sad rites were performed and the dust of the late B. P. Griffin was left in its last long home.

Washington Territory.

A man named Thomas, who came up from San Francisco on the Dakota the last trip, and who stopped last Sunday night at the Wisconsin house, yesterday was taken with small-pox. He started to go to Newcastle, where he has friends, but got no further than Renton, where he was stopped and brought back to the head of the bay, and thence removed to the pest house.—Seattle Post.

The Port Blakely Mill Company are enjoying a large lumber order from Shanghai, the filling of which will require five vessels, the aggregate cargoes amounting to three million feet or more. Three vessels are there now for loads, namely the Earl of Elgin, the Hollander and the Martha, all barks, and two more are expected soon to arrive. The lumber goes in large pieces—squared timbers.

Orogon.

W. H. Williams, an architect, while seated in a saloon at Portland on Saturday night, was set upon by a drunken barkeeper named John Murphy and stabbed with a penknife in several places about the head and face. The wounds are not dangerous.

W. C. Talbot, of the wealthy firm of Pope and Talbot, Puget Sound, who recently visited the firm's mills on the Sound, died at Astoria on Saturday afternoon while on his way to his home at San Francisco.

"FOWL" CRUELTY. It is nothing unusual for people to meet Chinamen on the streets of Victoria carrying along in their own peculiar manner four or more dozens of chickens or ducks suspended from the ends of their bamboo packing sticks. The poor creatures' feet are first tied, then they are fastened together in bundles, the sticks are thrust through amongst their legs and the cruel Celestial throws his load across his shoulders and trots off with the suffering mass swaying to and fro as he shuffles along. Is there no law in this city applicable to such needless, such wanton cruelty to animals? Are the police powerless to put a stop to this barbarous practice? Does not the Dominion statute on cruelty to animals apply here; and if so, why are not some of its provisions put in force? A Chinaman was seen the other day carrying three or four dozen ducks in the manner described. There can be no possible excuse for such a mode of transit when baskets carried in the same way would be just as convenient and would save a great amount of unnecessary suffering.

A GOOD IDEA.—Messrs. McBroom and Leronde propose to leave Welch, Rithet & Co.'s wharf with excursionists and guests for H. M. S. Thetis at 7½ o'clock Friday evening next. After placing the guests on board the war ship the Slope with the excursionists will proceed outside, returning to the Thetis at 12 o'clock and receive on board the guests for Victoria. Fare both ways 50 cents. *

THE Victoria Amateur Band is increasing in numerical strength and efficiency. Last night's rehearsal of difficult operas was very successful. The hall over Messrs. PRIVATE THEATRICALS.—Capt. P. W. Stephens and the officers of H.M.S. Thetis have issued invitations for private theatricals on board on Friday the 12th inst., at 8 p.m. Boats will be at Foster's Pier at 7:30 p. m., and carriages may be ordered at 12 o'clock.

A CALIFORNIA MURDERER TAKEN FROM GAOL

And Hanged by a Mob.

OROVILLE, Aug. 7.—J. T. Noakes, who murdered A. S. Crum about three weeks ago at Chico, was taken from gaol this morning by a posse of armed and masked men and conveyed to Crum's old place, about ten miles from here, on the road to Chico, and there hung by the neck to a limb of a large oak tree. The murder was so brutal and unprovoked, the murderer being a powerful man, over six feet in height while his victim was a small man over 50 years of age and a cripple, utterly at his mercy, and was not even acquainted with Noakes. The only provocation that Noakes alleged at the time was that Crum had made some disgraceful remarks in reference to Noakes' brother; but even this Crum utterly denied to him when he accused him of it, but without another word he at once felled Crum with one powerful blow of his fist and then proceeded to kick and pound him till he killed him.

THE CARIBOO WAGON ROAD BLOCKED.

Teams and Stages Delayed.

Advices from Yale on Monday state that travel on the wagon-road was then blocked. At Saddle Bluff, seven miles above Yale, a break was caused by a heavy railway blast the night before. This detention is most serious, fourteen teams and two mail coaches being unable to travel. It was feared that the mail and express would not be able to make connections, in consequence of this break and the bad condition of the thoroughfare in other parts. The road is scooped out for one hundred feet at Saddle Bluff. Will the Lands and Works look into this matter immediately?

POLICE COURT.—The only business before the Police Magistrate yesterday was an assault case in which the complainant did not appear. The defendant was accordingly discharged.

OTTAWA, July 26.—Mr. Charles Harris, a weathy gentleman from Manchester, England, who is making a tour of the world, is now in this city. Mr. Harris is very much pleased with what he has seen of Canada, and thinks that Manitoba is a beautiful country. He met the Duke of Athol, who had been on a trip in Manitoba and the Northwest, at Winnipeg. The Duke remarked to him that he was returning to Scotland both a sadder and a wiser man, as since he had seen the Canadian North-west he did not see how it was possible for British tenants to compete with the people of Canada, and he saw nothing for it but a reduction of rents all round.

MONTREAL, July 26.—The writ for the Argenteuil election has been issued. The nomination will take place on the 6th and the polling on the 13th of August.

ST. JOHN, N. B., July 25.—It is intimated by persons professing to know that the population of New Brunswick by the census is 322,000. Sir Hector Langevin stated to the meeting of Acadians at Memramcook that the population of the Dominion is 4,500,000.

OTTAWA, July 26.—The telephone was used between a church in this city and High Gate Springs, 92 miles distant, where members of the congregation were stopping to hear the sermon, delivered by the pastor on Sunday last. The experiment was most successful, the sound being as distinct as at houses in this city.

CANADIAN WINES.—Perhaps no branch of Canadian industry has made more rapid strides in the last fifteen years than that of the cultivation of the vine. Then but a few acres altogether could be found in Canada, but now hundreds of acres are devoted to vine-culture. Above all others the wines of the Vin Villa Vineyards, of Pelee Island, occupy the highest place in public estimation. The location of the Island has doubtless had much to do with this superiority, situated 15 miles south of the most southern point of the Canadian main land and the largest of the far-famed group of grape growing islands in Lake Erie, it enjoys several weeks of mild fall weather more than upon the mainland. By the latter fact the Pelee Island Vineyards are enabled to grow the Catawba to perfection, which is an impossibility upon the Canada main. The Wines of the Vin Villa Vineyards are today to be found upon the wine lists of most of the leading hotels in Canada and are obtainable from most of the leading family grocers and wine merchants. Fell & Co. have received per steamer Idaho a shipment of the above celebrated wines. See advertisement. *

DEATH IN THE COFFEE POT.—The public are cautioned against purchasing imported California ground coffee. Its cheapness is its only recommendation. The ingredients are of the vilest description, as anyone using it will discover should he examine the grounds. During the perihelia of the planets people should be careful what they eat and drink. Don't allow your grocer to palm off his trash upon you, because it pays him better to sell it than the good article. Ask for FELL & Co.'s Coffee and take no other. *

ASHCROFT RACES.—The annual meeting at Ashcroft will take place on the 5th and 6th October next. Many interesting races with liberal purses have been arranged and owners of fast stock should prepare for this, the most important meeting in the province. *

GOOD health is impossible when the blood is impure, or when it is thin and cold. Under such conditions one disease after another is developed. Boils, pimples, headaches, neuralgia, rheumatism, etc., are the result of the impure blood, and the wisest course is to make the blood pure, rich and warm by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. *

MUNICIPAL.

MUNICIPAL BYLAW.

CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF VICTORIA, PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

A BYLAW to Authorize the Sale of Lands within the City of Victoria, upon which Taxes have been due and in Arrear for Three Years.

WHEREAS IT IS EXPEDIENT that all lands or parcel of lands within the City of Victoria upon which taxes have been due and in arrear for three years shall be sold and the proceeds applied in the reduction of such taxes:

BE IT ENACTED therefore by the Mayor and Council of the Corporation of the City of Victoria:

1. The Assessor and Collector of the Municipal Council of the City of Victoria is hereby authorized and directed, whensoever taxes on any land have been due for three years preceding the Fifteenth day of July, 1881, to submit to the Mayor of the City of Victoria a list, in duplicate, of all the lands liable under the provisions of this Bylaw to be sold for taxes, with the amount of arrears against each lot set opposite to the same; and the Mayor shall authenticate such lists by affixing the Seal of the Corporation and his signature, and one of such lists shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Corporation and the other shall be returned to the Assessor and Collector with a warrant thereto annexed under the hand of the Mayor and the Seal of the Corporation, commanding him to levy upon the land for the arrears due thereon, with his costs.

2. It shall not be the duty of the Assessor and Collector to make enquiry before effecting a sale of lands for taxes to ascertain whether or not there is any distress upon the land, nor shall he be bound to enquire into or form any opinion of the value of the land.

3. The Assessor and Collector shall prepare a copy of the list of lands to be sold, and shall include therein, in a separate column, a statement of the proportion of costs chargeable on each lot for advertising and for the commissions authorized by this Bylaw to be paid to him, and shall cause such list to be published in some daily paper in the City of Victoria for a period of three months preceding such intended sale.

4. The advertisement shall contain a notification that unless the arrears and costs are sooner paid, he will proceed to sell the lands for the taxes on a day, a time and at a place named in the advertisement.

5. The Assessor and Collector shall, at least three months before the time of sale, also deliver to or deposit in the Postoffice to the address of the owner of such property which is to be sold for taxes a aforesaid, or to the agent of such owner, a notice in writing of the amount of taxes due, and that the property is to be sold for arrears so due and in case the address of the owner or agent is unknown a notice to the same effect shall be posted up on the land intended to be sold; and shall also, at least three months before the time of sale, post a notice similar to the above advertisement in some convenient and public places, that is to say: at the Council Chambers, Victoria, and in the Postoffice Building, Victoria.

6. The day of sale shall be the Ninetieth day after the publication of such list, exclusive of the day of such publication, except in case the said Ninetieth day shall fall on a Sunday or holiday, in which case such sale shall take place on the following day at the Council Chambers in the City of Victoria, and shall begin at Twelve o'clock, Noon.

7. If at the time appointed for the sale of the lands no bidders appear, the Assessor and Collector may adjourn the sale from time to time.

8. If the taxes have not been previously collected, or if no one appears to pay the same at the time and place appointed for the sale, the Assessor and Collector shall sell at Public Auction so much of the land as may be sufficient to discharge the taxes and all lawful charges incurred in and about the sale and the collection of the taxes, selling in preference such part as he may consider best for the owner to sell first; and in offering such lands for sale it shall not be necessary to describe particularly the portion of the lot or section which shall be sold, but it will be sufficient to say that he will sell so much of the lot or section as shall be necessary to secure the payment of the taxes due, and the amount of taxes stated in the advertisement shall in all cases be prima facie evidence of the correct amount due.

9. If the Assessor and Collector fails at such sale to sell such land for the full amount of arrears of the taxes due, he shall at such sale adjourn the same until a day to be publicly named by him, not earlier than one week nor later than three months thereafter, of such adjourned sale; he shall give notice by advertisement in one of the local papers in which the original notice was advertised and on such day he shall sell such lands for any sum he can realize and shall accept such sum as full payment of such arrears of taxes.

10. If the purchaser of any property or parcel of land fails immediately to pay to the Assessor and Collector the amount of the purchase money, the Assessor and Collector shall forthwith again put up the property for sale.

11. Immediately after every sale the Assessor and Collector shall return a list of the arrears satisfied by such sale to the Treasurer of the Corporation and shall at the same time pay in the proceeds of such sale to the said Treasurer.

12. The Assessor and Collector, after selling any land for taxes, shall give a Certificate under his hand to the purchaser stating distinctly what part of proportion, as the case may be, of the land and what interest therein have been sold; or stating that the whole lot, section or estate has been so sold and describing the same, and also stating the quantity of land, the sum for which it has been sold and the expenses of sale; and further stating that a deed conveying the same to the purchaser or his assigns according to the nature of the estate or interest sold will be executed by him and the Mayor, on his or their demand, at any time after the expiration of one year from the date of the Certificate if the land be not previously redeemed.

13. The Assessor and Collector shall be untitled to five per centime commission upon the sums collected by him as afore said.

14. This Bylaw may be cited for all purposes as "The Victoria Real Estate Tax Sale Bylaw, 1881."

HELP

Yourselves by making money when a golden chance is offered, thereby always keeping poverty from your door. Those who always take advantage of the good chances for making money that are offered, generally become wealthy, while those who do not improve such chances remain in poverty. We want many men, women, boys and girls to work for us right in their own localities. The business will pay more than ten times ordinary wages. We furnish an expensive outfit and all that you need free. No one who engages fails to make money rapidly. You can devote your whole time to the work, or only your spare moments. Full information and all that is needed sent free. Address STINSON & Co., Portland, Maine. ja7dw
